Victor Sassoon, a 50-year-old Puerto Rico native, is a US Army Special Operations veteran who served as a recon/sniper with the 75th Ranger Regiment, 2nd Battalion. He survived intense combat, severe trauma, a near-fatal suicide attempt resulting in a two-month coma, multiple surgeries, traumatic brain injury, facial reconstruction, loss of speech, right-side paralysis, and paralysis from the waist down. Once an atheist without hope, his life was radically transformed on April 7, 2017, by a powerful encounter with Jesus Christ. Despite the tragic deaths of his father, father-in-law, and only son within 18 months, his unwavering faith fuels his mission with Mighty Oaks Foundation. Through his testimony, Victor dedicates his life to “saving lives, restoring families, and changing legacies for all eternity,” showing God’s power can redeem even the most broken lives.
